General Information

The Battle for England

- This term sees the continuation of our topic, 'The Battle for England'. Having been introduced to both Anglo-Saxons and Vikings in term one, the children will now get to look in more detail at the long-term impact of their struggle for power. Not only will this involve studying some of the significant leaders of the time, it will also involve looking at the wider kingdoms and how they lived alongside one another.
- Year 6 Museum – Monday 10th December. Year 6 will be presenting their topic findings in the form of a class museum which will be open to parents from 2:30-3:00. You are very welcome to join us!
- KS2 Carol Service – Tuesday 18th December @ 7:00pm.
